The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday July 29, to Saturday Auguſt 2, 1746.

Kenſington, Auguſt 2.

THE following Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Common Council, Citizens and Inhabitants of the City of Chicheſter, has been preſented to his Majeſty by his Grace the Duke of Richmond: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Common Council, Citizens and Inhabitants of the City of Chicheſter.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Common Council, Citizens and Inhabitants of the City of Chicheſter, moſt humbly beg Leave to approach your Royal Preſence, with our heartieſt and moſt ſincere Congratulations on the glorious Event of that compleat and ſignal Victory which your Majeſty's Arms have lately obtained over your rebellious Subjects in Scotland; who vainly confiding in their own imaginary Strength, and the powerful Aſſiſtance of the common Diſturber of Europe, inſolently dared to ſupport the Claim, and follow the Standard of an abjured Pretender.

It is with the higheſt Senſe of Gratitude to your Majeſty, that we acknowledge your paternal Care of your People, in committing to your illuſtrious Son the Duke the ſupreme Command upon that important Occaſion; who by the united Influence of his Conduct and Courage in that ever memorable Day, has been the chief Inſtrument in the Hand of Providence, of ſecuring to us the peaceable Enjoyment of our holy Religion, our ſacred Laws, and our conſtitutional Liberties.

That the ſame Almighty Providence may beſtow its Bleſſing on your Majeſty's Arms both by Sea and Land, againſt all your Enemies foreign and domeſtick; that you may ſee the Liberties of Europe, and in Conſequence thereof, the Peace and Happineſs of your People ſettled on a firm and durable Foundation; that after a long and quiet Poſſeſſion of the Crown, it may deſcend in an uninterrupted Succeſſion to your lateſt Poſterity, are the fervent Prayers of us your Majeſty's faithful and dutiful Subjects.

Sealed with the common Seal of the ſaid City, the 28th Day of July, in the Twentieth Year of your Reign.

The following Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Juſtices of the Peace, and Grand Jury of the County of Cumberland, having been tranſmitted to the Right Honourable the Lord Viſcount Lonſdale, Lord Lieutenant of the ſaid County, was by him preſented to his Majeſty; who was pleaſed to receive the ſame very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Juſtices of the Peace, and Grand Jury of the County of Cumberland, aſſembled at the General Quarter Seſſions of the Peace holden at Carliſle, in and for the ſaid County, the Sixteenth Day of July, One thouſand ſeven hundred and forty ſix.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Sheriff, Juſtices of the Peace, and Grand Jury of the County of Cumberland, moſt humbly beg Leave to approach your Majeſty, with Hearts full of the ſincereſt Joy, to congratulate your Majeſty on the glorious Succeſs ceſs of your Arms, under the auſpicious Conduct and Command of his Royal Highneſs the Duke, over the Rebels.

When we conſider the many invaluable Bleſſings we ſo fully enjoy, in all our Civil and Religious Rights and Liberties, under your Majeſty's moſt prudent and mild Adminiſtration and Government, and at the ſame Time reflect upon the late moſt wicked and execrable Deſigns and Attempts of our Enemies to deprive us thereof; we want Words to expreſs our grateful Acknowledgments to Heaven, and the Tranſports we feel in our Breaſts on ſo great a Deliverance.

May Succeſs attend your Majeſty's Arms againſt all your Enemies at Home and Abroad. May your Majeſty long live and reign over us, the diſtinguiſhed Guardian and Protector, under Heaven, of all our Civil and Religious Rights and Liberties; and may there never want a Prince deſcended from your Majeſty, on the Throne of theſe Kingdoms, to continue theſe Bleſſings to our lateſt Poſterity.

The following Addreſs of the Biſhop, High-Sheriff, Juſtices of the Peace, Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Carmarthen, has been preſented to his Majeſty by John Vaughan, Eſq; Repreſentative in Parliament for the County of Carmarthen, being introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl Paulett, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Biſhop, High Sheriff, Juſtices of the Peace, Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Carmarthen.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty on the late ſeaſonable and glorious Victory obtained by your Majeſty's Arms, under the prudent Command and valiant Conduct of his Royal Highneſs the Duke, over your Majeſty's infatuated and rebellious Subjects, fomented and ſupported by our avowed Enemy, the Houſe of Bourbon.

When our Religion, Laws and Liberties, were endangered by thoſe unhappy deluded Wretches and their Fomentors, your Majeſty ſhewed the utmoſt Regard and Concern for your People, and for our happy Eſtabliſhment, not only in providing for our Safety, but alſo in the Choice of your Son, that illuſtrious Hero, to command your Arms, who has ſo early and ſo glorioufly diſtinguiſhed himſelf in the Cauſe of Religion and Liberty; and we ſhould eſteem ourſelves unworthy of your Majeſty's paternal Care, if we did not, in the ſtrongeſt Manner, endeavour to expreſs our Gratitude.

May Succeſs attend your Majeſty's Arms, until Tranquillity be reſtored to your Subjects; and may Providence ever preſerve your ſacred Majeſty; and grant that there never may be wanting a Prince deſcended of your illuſtrious Houſe to reign over this Nation, are the hearty Prayers of,

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects.

The following Addreſs of the Juſtices, Grand Jury, Gentlemen and Freeholders of the County of Huntingdon, has been preſented to his Majeſty by Sir Edward Lawſon, Chairman of the Seſſions, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Lord Viſcount Harcourt, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Juſtices, Grand Jury, Gentlemen and Freeholders of the County of Huntingdon, at a General Quarter Seſſions, aſſembled at Huntingdon, in and for the ſaid County, the 15th Day of July, in the Year of our Lord 1746.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, humbly beg Leave to approach your ſacred Perſon, with our moſt affectionate Congratulations, on the late glorious Victory obtained by your Majeſty's Forces under the Command of his Royal Highneſs the Duke of Cumberland, over thoſe unnatural Rebels, who, with the Aſſiſtance of our moſt inveterate Enemies Abroad, have wickedly attempted to introduce a popiſh and abjured Pretender among us, in order to ſubvert the beſt Government, and ruin the happieſt Nation in the World.

Your Majeſty's Appointment of a Prince of your Royal Blood to command your Troops on this important Occaſion, who has been trained up to Arms under your own Inſtructions, and formed by your great Example, is an illuſtrious Inſtance of your Wiſdom and paternal Care of your People; and the indefatigable Vigilance, Conduct, and Bravery of his Royal Highneſs, will ſhine with a diſtinguiſhed Luſtre in our Hiſtory, and for ever endear him to theſe Nations.

Animated by the Valour of this young Hero, and conducted with a military Judgment worthy the moſt veteran and experienced Captain of the Age, your Officers, and all your Troops that were engaged, have by their Firmneſs and Courage maintained the ancient Glory of the Britiſh Name,

Name, and give us great Hopes to ſee that proud Prince yet humbled Abroad, whoſe perfidious Attempts on your Majeſty's Throne and the inſeparable Happineſs of your People, has been ſo remarkably defeated in this Country.

We deſire to take this Opportunity of renewing to your Majeſty the warmeſt Aſſurances of our unſhaken Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon, Family and Government, and our fervent Prayers, that your precious Life may be long, and your Reign be bleſſed with all the Returns of Gratitude that your Majeſty's unwearied Labours for the Proſperity of your People juſtly require; and that the Happineſs that your Majeſty is endeavouring to ſecure for us and our Poſterity, may be convey'd down to them by your illuſtrious Deſcendants, to the End of Time.

The following Addreſs of the Alderman, Recorder, Burgeſſes, and others, Inhabitants within the Town and Corporation of Wokingham, in the Counties of Berks and Wilts, has been preſented to his Majeſty by his Grace the Duke of St. Albans: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

The humble Addreſs of the Alderman, Recorder, Burgeſſes, and others, Inhabitants within the Town and Corporation of Wokingham, in the Counties of Berks and Wilts.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

PErmit us your Majeſty's moſt dutiful Subjects, at this Time in open Seſſions aſſembled, moſt humbly to offer at your Royal Feet, our ſincereſt Tender and Tribute of Joy, upon the late glorious and compleat Victory obtained by your Majeſty's Arms over the Rebels at Culloden, under the auſpicious Influence, and diſtinguiſh'd Conduct of his Royal Highneſs the Duke of Cumberland.

Your Majeſty has given, upon this important Occaſion, the ſtrongeſt and moſt convincing Proof of your tender Care and Regard for your People; and it would be very extraordinary indeed, if we, on our Parts, ſhould at all be wanting in the warmeſt Returns of Gratitude and Thankfulneſs. But, among the many Marks of princely Goodneſs, ſteadily and uniformly ſhewn, both by yourſelf and Royal Father, ever ſince the Acceſſion of your illuſtrious Houſe to the Crown of theſe Kingdoms, none has ſhone more conſpicuous, or ought deeper to engage the Hearts and Affections of a grateful People, than to ſee their Sovereign, at a Time when his diſtreſſed Subjects moſt wanted it, diveſt himſelf, for their Sakes, of the natural Ties of paternal Tenderneſs, and condeſcend to ſuffer his heroick Son, juſt then return'd from his Country's Service Abroad, to expoſe his invaluable Perſon at Home, to the mercileſs Fury of a ſavage Multitude, animated with a ſort of brutal Fierceneſs, and made couragious merely by Deſpair.

But at the ſame Time, that we are warmed with the pureſt Sentiments of Gratitude and Duty, we cannot but be filled with the moſt boundleſs Joy, to behold the wicked Attempts of this poor deluded Crew, (Attempts to bereave us at once of all we hold dear and precious) defeated and diſappointed by the Valour and Activity of this Royal Chief, whoſe Courage and Conduct ſufficiently beſpeak his high Deſcent, and well intitle him to ſtand among the foremoſt in the long Line of Heroes, immemorially deſcended from the Houſe of Hanover.

Nor is it a ſmall Addition to the Satisfaction we feel upon this moſt ſignal Deliverance, to conſider, that the Deſtruction, prepared for us and for our Children, being thus happily, and, we hope in God, effectually ended, turns moſt ſtrongly upon the wicked Contrivers of it themſelves, in as much as it muſt convince them, if they are to be convinced, how preſumptuous and vain their Expectations are, and how inconſiſtent true Britiſh Liberty is with lawleſs Rule and arbitrary Power; which Fact, is in itſelf ſo clear and undeniable, that if it be but attended to with that Seriouſneſs which it requires, it muſt add Stability and Firmneſs to the Proteſtant Eſtabliſhment in the Houſe of Hanover, and evermore put to Silence the Diſcontents and Murmurs of a miſtaken Few, who would again bring us, if they could, under that Yoke which galled our Fathers, and which moſt aſſuredly would gall us too, ſhould we ever be ſo unhappy as to make the Tryal.

Given under our Common Seal this 18th Day of July, 1746.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Sheriffs, and Commonalty of the City of Corke, having been tranſmitted to his Excellency the Earl of Cheſterfield, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, has by him been preſented to his Majeſty: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Sheriffs and Commonalty of the City of Corke.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Sheriffs and Commonalty of the City of Corke, beg Leave to approach your ſacred Perſon with our moſt ſincere and hearty Congratulations for the glorious Victory obtained by his Royal Highneſs the Duke, over the moſt perfidious, the moſt ungrateful, and the moſt unprovoked Rebels that ever infeſted Great Britain, or any other Nation.

When

When we conſider by whom, and at what Seaſon this unnatural Rebellion was fomented; that it was raiſed and maintained by the common Enemies of the Liberties of Europe, at the Inſtant they were uſing their utmoſt Efforts to ſubvert the Freedom of Mankind; that it was manifeſtly contrived to diſtreſs your Majeſty's Affairs at Home, by introducing Confuſion into your Kingdoms, by which they hoped to diſable your faithful Subjects from giving your Majeſty the Aid neceſſary for carrying on ſucceſsfully the juſt War in which your Majeſty is engaged; we cannot too loudly rejoyce for the Succeſs of your Majeſty's Arms over wicked Rebels, infatuated Dupes to the Ambition of Princes ever Enemies to the well being of Britiſh Subjects.

But when we figure to ourſelves the lamentable Circumſtances, under which your Majeſty's Proteſtant Subjects would inevitably have groaned had the Rebellion been ſucceſsful; that thoſe of your faithful Subjects, who had the Misfortune to ſurvive it, would have been the Sport and Scorn of mercileſs Prieſts and Papiſts; would have been at once deprived of the Exerciſe of the pureſt Religion, and the Enjoyment of their Liberty and Property; and muſt have parted with your Majeſty's gentle and legal Government, for that of a popiſh Outlaw, directed by the arbitrary and cruel Maxims of France, Spain and Rome; we can never enough praiſe God for our great Deliverance, nor be ſufficiently thankful to your Majeſty for your paternal Care of us and the reſt of your Majeſty's Subjects, which you manifeſted, by expoſing one of your Royal Iſſue, ſo juſtly dear to your Majeſty, to the imminent Dangers of a barbarous War, merely to ſecure to your People the Enjoyment of thoſe Bleſſings, which they cannot loſe, whilſt your Majeſty holds the Scepter of theſe Kingdoms.

May your Majeſty's Reign over theſe Kingdoms be long and happy; and may you be ſucceeded to the End of Time by your own Royal and Illuſtrious Deſcendants; may your Majeſty be ever victorious over your Enemies, and reign in the Hearts of a grateful and flouriſhing People; may your Power be ever formidable to thoſe, who would load the World with Chains; may it confound them who would interrupt the Happineſs of thoſe who live under your Government, and may your Subjects continue to be the Envy of the whole World, being protected by your Bravery, and directed by your Widom.

Given under the Common Seal of the ſaid City, this 18th Day of June, 1746.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Freeholders, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Kellington, in the County of Cornwall, has been preſented to his Majeſty by Thomas Coppleſton, Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl Paulett, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Freeholders and Inhabitants of the Borough of Kellington, in the County of Cornwall.

PErmit us again, moſt gracious Sovereign, to approach your Royal Preſence, with a Renewal of the moſt cordial and ſincere Profeſſions of our Duty, Loyalty and Affection to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, and moſt humbly to offer our Congratulations (with the reſt of your faithful Subjects) on the late great and happy Event of the Demolition of the Rebels, by the ſignal Victory obtained over them in Scotland, from the known Valour of your Majeſty's Britiſh Troops, and which muſt always be ſo, in the moſt eminent Degree, when inſpir'd and led on to Glory by your Majeſty's Son the Duke of Cumberland; a Prince, whoſe diſtinguiſh'd Courage, Humanity, Conduct, and good Senſe, hath rendered him the Admiration of the Age, and Praiſes from our very Enemies. But ſuch exalted Merit ſeems to be inherent in your auguſt Houſe, when we conſider (after ſo many Years Experience of your Majeſty's, as well as your Royal Father's Wiſdom and Valour) from whence he is deſcended; and the many brave and valiant Men from the ſame great Stock, in former Ages, may be deemed to be ſtill a farther Confirmation thereof.

The manifeſt Conſequence of this Succeſs hath been the Preſervation of our Religion, Laws and Liberties, in the Room of French Government, and arbitrary Power, accompanied with the worſt of all Scourges, papal Tyranny.

There is a Sympathy in great Souls, even amongſt generous Adverſaries; and how much more ſo, when in the ſame Family, or amongſt thoſe purſuing the ſame glorious Cauſe, the Liberties and Happineſs of Mankind. It is from hence (if poſſible) this brave young Hero grows more and more endear'd to his Royal Father; it is from the ſame Impulſe, that his Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales, with every Branch of the Royal Family, ſo truly rejoice and love him; and it is from a good and honeſt Principle, that every true Briton muſt always pray for your Majeſty's long and happy Reign over us; and that there may be never wanting a Prince of your moſt illuſtrious Houſe to ſway the the Sceptre of thoſe Realms till Time ſhall be no more.

Theſe therefore are ever the moſt ardent Wiſhes of,

Great SIR,

Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects.

Naples, July 12. By a Diſpatch from the Secretary of State's Office, the King has nominated M. de la Vieu Ville Viceroy of Sicily, in the Room of Prince Coſini, who is to act however in that Character till that General can be conveniently relieved by a Succeſſor to the Command of the King's Troops in Lombardy. On the 10th and 11th Inſtant anchored in this Port from Genoa, five Tranſport Veſſels, with two Battalions out of the Foot Regiments La Reine and Royal Macedone, and a Squadron out of the King's Regiment of Horſe, who were made Priſoners of War at Guaſtalla, and ſince exchanged. The ſaid Tranſports have landed many Deſerters out of the Auſtrian and Sardinian Troops, who have inliſted themſelves in the King's Service.

Florence, July 19. The Genoeſe continue to make all poſſible Diſpoſitions at the Spezia and Sarzana to defend thoſe Places and their Confines, for which Purpoſe 1000 Men more were expected from Genoa as Yeſterday. An Expreſs arrived at the Spezia in the Night of the 17th, with Orders to diſtribute Arms to the Country People from 17 to 60 Years old, and to break the Roads on the Confines, and to double the Guards. The Bankers at Genoa had received Orders from Spain to remit very conſiderable Sums of Money to Venice. Belloni, the Banker at Rome, and others there, have received the ſame Orders, in Conſequence of which, the 16th he remitted 50000 Crowns; which makes it conjectured that Don Philip is to retire thither. The lateſt Letters from Lombardy bring us no Occurrences of any Moment. The Confederate Spaniſh, French, and Neapolitan Troops, continue in their former Poſition at Codogno, and in the Lodeſan, having gathered up and introduced into Placentia all the Forage they could get. The Auſtrians continue to batter that Town, and have detached from the main Body of their Army two large Parties of their Troops, one to join the King of Sardinia, and the other, General Roth; it is thought, with a View to ſtreighten the Army, and to bring them to an Action. The King of Sardinia was accordingly in Motion towards the River Trebia.

Venice, July 20. The Auſtrians are making Diſpoſitions to attack the Spaniards, and diſlodge them from the Lodeſan, which, by Advices of a very freſh Date, will be attempted very ſoon, ſo that we are hourly in Expectation of hearing News of an Action. They continue ſtill to bombard Placentia; the negligent Manner in which they buried the Dead, occaſions ſuch a Stench, that they are apprehenſive of very bad conſequences from it. A Diſtemper begins to make great Havock in the City, inſomuch that moſt of the principal Inhabitants have abandon'd it, and are returned to Crema. Don Philip is at Codogno, in a Palace of Prince Trivulci's; at Lodi Quarrels between the French and Spaniards have been ſo frequent and violent, that to prevent farther Miſchief the Generals have cauſed an Order to be fixed upon the City Gates, forbidding the two Nations to meſs together upon Pain of Death. General Pignatelli is with a Detachment of 7000 Men at St. Franceſco, and began the 16th to batter the Ghierra of Pizzighitone; as the Enemy has only five Cannon mounted, the Garriſon deſpiſe the Attempt, and look upon it as a Feint to covet ſome other Purpoſe. General Roth, who commands upon the Adda and Pizzighitone, has a Corps of 11 Battalions, a Regiment of Cuiraſſiers, a Regiment of Dragoons, and one of Huſſars. A large Sum of Money has been lately remitted by the Bankers here to the Spaniſh Army.

Edinburgh, July 27. We have Intelligence, that on Wedneſday Sen'night the Pretender's Son got over the Hill of Morar, in Lochabar, where he was receiv'd by Lochgerrie with 80 Men in Arms, who conducted him into Badenoch. Orders are ſent for preſerving a ſtrict Embargo along the Coaſt, and for ſeizing and ſecuring every where all ſuſpected Perſons.

London, July 2, 1746.

General Poſt Office.

Whereas the Poſt-Boy, bringing the Cheſter Mail from Fenny Stratford to Dunſtable, was Yeſterday, the 1ſt Inſtant, about Eleven of the Clock at Night, attacked on the Highway, near a Place called Hockliffe, otherwiſe Hockley, in the County of Bedford, by a ſingle Highwayman, who carried off the following Bags, viz. Warrington, Ormskirk, Wigan, Cheſter, Wrexham, Coventry, Litchfield, Tamworth, Burton, Uttoxeter, Stafford, Stone, Holmes Chappel, Macclesfield, Stockport, Drayton, Ruthin, Northop, Conway, Shrewsbury, and Oſweſtry. The Perſon who committed this Robbery, is a middle-ſiz'd Man, and had on a light brown colour'd looſe Horſeman's Coat, his Face cover'd with the Cape of his Coat, and rode on a dark bay Mare, with a bald Face, and white Legs behind, and made off towards Woburne.

This therefore is to give Notice, that whoever ſhall apprehend and convict, or cauſe to be apprehended and convicted, the Perſon who committed this Robbery, will be intitled to a Reward of Two Hundred Pounds, over and above the Reward given by Act of Parliament for apprehending of Highwaymen: Or if any Perſon or Perſons, whether Accomplice in the ſaid Robbery, or knowing thereof, ſhall make Diſcovery, whereby the Perſon who committed the ſame, may be apprehended and brought to Juſtice, ſuch Diſcoverer or Diſcoverers will, upon Conviction of the Party, be intitled to the ſame Reward of Two Hundred Pounds, and alſo have his Majeſty's moſt gracious Pardon.

By Command of the Poſt-Maſter-General,
George Shelvocke, Secretary.
